

ENBYouthCo-nnect: English National Ballets young collective.

Application Guidelines & Information

Please find below further information about ENBYouthCo-nnect and the application process for prospective young dancers to join us in September 2023.

ENBYOUTHCO-NNECT – Overview

ENBYouthCo-nnect is a one-year programme where young dancers work with ENBYouthCo-nnect Creative Director, Jo Meredith, and a team of dynamic and highly experienced professional artists. Designed for young dancers aged 13 -16 years the programme provides a unique training experience in ballet and contemporary dance technique, introducing choreographic skills and working towards opportunities for live performance.

For those with a minimum of 1 years dance experience, it is recommended to those looking for additional opportunities to enhance their choreographic and performance skills, to support future prospective applications to audition for programmes such as ENBYouthCo.

Age guidelines: ENBYouthCo-nnect prioritises dancers aged 13 – 16 years, however if you are above or below the age range with a minimum 1 year dance experience please contact us directly and if we have the capacity we would love to welcome you.

ENBYOUTHCO-NNECT – Annual Cohort

The annual programme takes place at ENBs home, Mulryan Centre for Dance, on Fridays at 6:15 – 7:45pm.

Dancers will work with the Creative Director and collaborate with professional Dance Artists, Choreographers, and Dancers of ENBYouthCo, to broaden their knowledge of dance technique and choreographic skills by taking part in supplementary classes and creative sessions; building confidence to perform alongside ENBYouthCo at ENB's annual RePlay platform in March 2024 – an evening of dance co-curated with young people.
