Please find below further information about ENBYouthCo, the application process and audition workshop for prospective young dancers to join us in September 2024.

ENBYOUTHCO - Overview

ENBYouthCo was launched in 2012 and is recognised as one of the leading youth dance companies in the UK, offering young artists 14 - 19 years (up to 21 years by invitation), a level of professional supplementary ballet and contemporary dance training, creation and performance experiences, and individual mentoring, that is embodied within English National Ballet.

ENBYouthCo creates and performs new work at youth dance platforms across London and the regions, and at Re-Play ENB's platform at Mulryan Centre for Dance. At its core ENBYouthCo develops the potential of its dancers, promoting personal creativity and providing unique opportunities to co-create new work with world-class creatives.

ENBYouthCo graduates have been successful in securing places at accredited vocational training and entering professions within the creative industries. Beyond graduating ENBYouthCo alumni are regularly provided opportunities to continue their professional development with ENB through masterclasses, placements, and artist-in-training openings, as appropriate.

ENBYOUTHCO – Annual Cohort

ENBYouthCo follows an academic year and is based at our home Mulryan Centre for Dance (MCD). The annual programme includes regular weekly sessions at MCD and intensives, three terms a year, with additional dates for dress rehearsals and performances as required.

Each cohort works with guest choreographers to produce two new works and perform in a range of settings, with supplementary dance and fitness sessions led by guest teachers, talks by industry professionals and engagement with English National Ballet's Artistic team and dancers.

The Summer Intensive is a five-day programme of body conditioning, class and choreography open to ENBYouthCo, ENBYouthCo Alumni and invited dancers.

Regular weekly sessions take place on Fridays at 6:30 – 8:30pm and each term has a minimum of two Sunday intensives 10:00 – 4:00pm. The five-day Summer Intensive is scheduled at the end of July / early August. Additional dates are often required in response to the creation and performance schedule.
